

The complete legal solution for the retail sector: corporate

We deliver accessible, cost-effective, value-added corporate transactions to meet our clients' commercial objectives.

Hill Dickinson's dedicated corporate team is experienced in delivering commercially-driven legal advice to retail clients.

With an understanding of the challenges and opportunities presented by the sector, our team of corporate lawyers provides a service that is timely, relevant and high quality.

The solution

At the outset, we look to gain an understanding of our clients' commercial objectives so as to devise bespoke and focused strategies.

We continually review our service offering in line with client needs. Most recently we launched Intelligentsia, a specialist due diligence product that provides timely, relevant and cost-effective reporting, thereby adding value to the acquisition process.

The benefits to you

We operate in small teams, allowing clients direct access to our experts. This, we believe, is essential in meeting client expectations and transactional deadlines.

Each team is led by a partner experienced in the retail sector and in particular, leading complex, multi-disciplinary processes. We aim to focus on the critical issues to expedite achieving our clients' objectives whilst minimising costs.

“This is one of the leading teams for the retail sector.”
