

The complete legal solution for the retail sector: logistics and supply chain

Supply chain management and the distribution of goods, whether local or international, requires sophisticated contractual arrangements to manage risk, and specialist expertise to handle claims.

The solution

Hill Dickinson's cargo, freight and logistics team offers unparalleled experience, insight and strategic advice to help retailers improve the efficiency of their supply chains.

We understand that maintaining business continuity, minimising costs and risks and protecting reputation are of paramount importance to our clients. We use our expertise in the logistics and transport sector to find solutions for clients that meet their business objectives, make commercial sense and add value.

We have experience in acting for both the purchasers and providers of logistics services, operating both nationally and internationally, using our bases in Manchester, Liverpool, London, Piraeus and Singapore and our network of international experts to offer global reach and cross-border services.

With our roots in the transportation and trade sectors, our expertise covers all aspects of international and domestic supply chains, including 3PL and 4PL agreements, joint venture initiatives, refrigerated traffic and warehousing as well as all modes of transportation of goods.
